Welcome

Rev. Jeremy Crossley

Hymn – Abide With Me

Abide with me, fast falls the eventide
The darkness deepens; Lord with me abide
When other helpers fail and comforts flee
Help of the helpless, oh, abide with me

Swift to its close ebbs out life's little day
Earth's joys grow dim, its glories pass away
Change and decay in all around I see
O Thou who changest not, abide with me

I fear no foe, with Thee at hand to bless
Ills have no weight, and tears no bitterness
Where is death's sting?
Where, grave, thy victory?
I triumph still, if Thou abide with me

Hold Thou Thy cross before my closing eyes
Shine through the gloom and point me to the skies
Heaven's morning breaks, and earth's vain shadows flee
In life, in death, o Lord, abide with me
Abide with me, abide with me

Bidding Prayer

Reading

Led by Geoff Clarke

John 14:1-6

"Do not let your hearts be troubled. You believe in God; believe also in me. My Father's house has many rooms; if that were not so, would I have told you that I am going there to prepare a place for you? And if I go and prepare a place for you, I will come back and take you to be with me that you also may be where I am. You know the way to the place where I am going." Thomas said to him, "Lord, we don't know where you are going, so how can we know the way?" Jesus answered, "I am the way and the truth and the life. No one comes to the Father except through me.

Reading- We Remember Them –

Geoff Clarke, Stock Exchange Vets Committee Member

When we are weary and in need of strength,
When we are lost and sick at heart,

All: We remember them.

When we have a joy we crave to share
When we have decisions that are difficult to make
When we have achievements that are based on theirs

All: We remember them.

At the blowing of the wind and in the chill of winter
At the opening of the buds and in the rebirth of spring,

All: We remember them.

At the blueness of the skies and in the warmth of summer
At the rustling of the leaves and in the beauty of autumn,

All: We remember them.

At the rising of the sun and at its setting,

All: We remember them.

As long as we live, they too will live
For they are now a part of us,

All: As we remember them.

Bring Him Home, from Les Miserables

Toni Nunn

Hymn – The Lord's my Shepherd

The Lord's my Shepherd, I'll not want;
He makes me down to lie
In pastures green; He leadeth me
The quiet waters by.

My soul He doth restore again,
And me to walk doth make
Within the paths of righteousness,
E'en for His own name's sake.

Yea, though I walk in death's dark vale,
Yet will I fear no ill;
For thou art with me, and thy rod
And staff me comfort still.

My table thou hast furnished
In presence of my foes;
My head thou dost with oil anoint,
And my cup overflows.

Goodness and mercy all my life
Shall surely follow me,
And in God's house forevermore
My dwelling-place shall be.

Prayers

Rev. Jeremy Crossley

The Lord's Prayer

Our Father, who art in heaven,
 Hallowed be thy name;
 Thy kingdom come;
 Thy will be done;
 On earth as it is in heaven.
 Give us this day our daily bread.
 And forgive us our trespasses,
 As we forgive those who trespass against us.
 And lead us not into temptation;
 But deliver us from evil.
 For thine is the kingdom,
 The power and the glory,
 For ever and ever.
Amen.

Reading - Death Is Nothing At All

Phil Gardner, Stock Exchange Vets Committee

Death is nothing at all, I have only slipped away into the next room
 I am I and you are you, whatever we were to each other
 That we are still
 Call me by my old familiar name
 Speak to me in the easy way you always used, put no difference into your tone
 Wear no forced air of solemnity or sorrow, laugh as we always laughed
 At the little jokes we always enjoyed together
 Play, smile, think of me, pray for me
 Let my name be ever the household word that it always was Let it be spoken without effort, without the ghost of a shadow in it
 Life means all that it ever meant, It is the same as it ever was
 There is absolute unbroken continuity
 What is death but a negligible accident?
 Why should I be out of mind, because I am out of sight?
 I am waiting for you for an interval somewhere very near; just around the corner all is well.
 Nothing is past; nothing is lost
 One brief moment and all will be as it was before
 How we shall laugh at the trouble of parting when we meet again!

Hymn - Jerusalem

And did those feet in ancient time
Walk upon England's mountain green?
And was the holy Lamb of God
On England's pleasant pastures seen?
And did the countenance divine
Shine forth upon our clouded hills?
And was Jerusalem builded here
Among those dark satanic mills?

Bring me my bow of burning gold!
Bring me my arrows of desire!
Bring me my spear! O clouds, unfold!
Bring me my chariot of fire!
I will not cease from mental fight,
Nor shall my sword sleep in my hand,
Till we have built Jerusalem
In England's green and pleasant land.

Organ Voluntary

Richard Townend

No distance of place or lapse of time can lessen the friendship of those who are thoroughly persuaded of each other's worth

We are going to raise a glass to our friends in The Jamaica Wine House, St. Michael's Alley, off Cornhill, after the service. Please join us.

The Stock Exchange Veterans would like to express their grateful thanks to Rev Crossley; Richard Townend, the Organist; our soloist, Toni Nunn and to all the staff at St Margaret's Church, for supporting this memorial again.
The service sheets were kindly printed by Smith & Williamson Investment Management Ltd.

There will be a Retiring Collection which will be shared between the Stock Exchange Veterans Charity Association and the work of St Margaret's Church.

The Stock Exchange Benevolent Fund ('SEBF') was created by the members of the London Stock Exchange ('LSE') and their firms to provide support to present and past members of the LSE and their families, who fell upon hard times.

Since 1994 there have been no new members of the LSE but the SEBF continues to award annuities or emergency grants to surviving members and their dependents. Please get in touch with us if you know of a former member, or their family, that may need help.

Website: www.sebf.co.uk

Our thanks go to the SEBF for sponsoring our soloist today.

Stock Exchange Clerks Fund, is a charity set up to help clerks previously employed within the Stock Exchange or in a Member firm. If you know of any previous employee or dependant in need of assistance, please contact:

Charity Liaison Officer, Deana Ball on email deanaball44@gmail.com or 01708732458 (answer phone, please leave a message and will get back to you)
